KEY WORDS: Assistant Professor (Post-doc), software, detectors, data analysis, electronics

DESCRIPTION (field, expectations, comments, requirements):

We invite applications for a post-doc to be employed as a research assistant professor in the Department of Particle Interactions and Detection Techniques in the project NCN Opus. The main goal of the project is to develop a compact electromagnetic calorimeter for studying the QED strong field regime for the LUXE experiment at DESY. The successful candidate will part of the project team at AGH (prof. Marek Idzik) and will participate in the development and construction of the above calorimeter. Depending on the competences, his/her main activity will be: writing software for control and data acquisition; data analysis; construction of a calorimeter based on silicon detectors; construction and testing of calorimeter readout electronics. We expect the candidate to be able to work in an interdisciplinary team.

6-month full-time contract starts on June 1st, 2025 with the possibility of extension.

REQUIREMENTS:

1) PhD in Natural Sciences or Engineering and Technology,

- 2) experience in the field (at least one of): creating and testing software (e.g. for control and data acquisition) for portable devices (PC); testing and use of particle detectors; use and testing of readout electronics for detector systems; analysis of detector data,
- 3) knowledge of programming in C/C++/Python and/or basic knowledge of embedded systems software and/or knowledge of typical data analysis environments (ROOT, Python Numpy) is welcome,
- 4) a doctoral degree obtained no earlier than 1 January 2018 outside the AGH University of Krakow or at the AGH provided that a continuous and documented 10-month foreign postdoctoral fellowship is completed,
- knowledge of English at least at B-2 level,
- 6) scientific and organizational achievements and active participation in conferences and symposia.

To be considered a candidate you must meet the following requirements set out in the Act:

- 1) you hold the qualifications defined in the Act,
- 2) you have full capacity for juridical acts,
- 3) you have not been convicted for an intentional offence,
- 4) you enjoy full public rights.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED:

- 1) application, CV, cover letter, personal questionnaire,
- 2) two letters of recommendation,
- 3) a document confirming knowledge of English at the least at the level B-2 (not required for candidates for whom English is the first language),
- 4) copy of diplomas or other certificates confirming qualifications,
- 5) list of scientific and organizational achievements.

DOCUMENTS MUST BE SUBMITTED:

Complete documentation must be sent to the following email address: sekretariat@fis.agh.edu.pl or sent to the address: Faculty of Physics and Applied Computer Science AGH, Poland, 30-059 Kraków, ul. Reymonta 19, building D-10, III floor, room 327 till 29.04.2025.
