General data:

UKSW ORGANISATION UNIT: Multidisciplinary Research Center UKSW

POSITION: Research, Assistant professor

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE: Physical sciences

COMPETITION OPENING DATE AND TENDER
SUBMISSION DEADLINE: January 31, 2023 – March 3, 2023

PLACE OF ANNOUCEMENT: www.uksw.edu.pl, www.bazaogloszen.nauka.gov.pl, <https://euraxess.ec.europa.eu/>

DESCRIPTION (subject matter, expectations, comments):

Research subject - Technological treatment (plastic and thermal), structural and mechanical characteristics of Ti, Cu, Ag alloys

Expectations - Practical experience in thermoplastic processing of stable and metastable alloys with hexagonal and regular face-centered structure. Conducting material research in the field of microstructure characterization and mechanical properties evaluation. Practical knowledge of research techniques: light, electron microscopy EDS, XRD. Advanced knowledge of methods for measuring mechanical properties, including hardness, microhardness, static tensile/compression test - the ability to independently perform experiments from the stage of preparation and processing of the material to the results analysis. Very good knowledge of thermodynamics of equilibrium and non-equilibrium phase transitions, in particular titanium alloys. Fluency in written and spoken Polish language. Fluency in spoken and written English would be desirable.
